

ROOSEVELT DENIES HE ASKED TRUSTS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

EX-PRESIDENT TESTIFIES BEFORE PROBING COMMITTEE

THIRD TERMER SAYS HE WANTED MONEY FOR NEW YORK CAMPAIGN
DIGS UP LETTER ORDERING THE RETURN OF MONEY TO TRUSTS

Denies Having Said No Trusts Contributed to His Own Fund

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Roosevelt took the stand before the senate committee at 10 this morning. Roosevelt demanded that Penrose "be thrown out of the senate." He said he held Penrose should be thrown out because of his own admission to the committee that he had advised Archbold to try and purchase immunity from the government prosecution. "Archbold testified I have tried to blackmail him. Do you believe it? As you have seen by my letters, as soon as there was a rumor to improve contributions, I ordered them returned, and have the assurance of Bliss and Cortelyou there were no such contributions. Loeb had the assurance by telephone that the Standard Oil had contributed nothing. Penrose says he advised Archbold to submit to blackmail because of hostility in certain quarters. They could only obtain the hostility of myself if they violated the law. Penrose's purpose of giving such advice could only have been to secure the Standard Oil against government action if he had violated the law."

Hundreds cheered Roosevelt when he entered the committee room. He first read all of the Harriman-Roosevelt letters. Roosevelt declared Harriman through Loeb had asked to see him, and Loeb was present at the interview. He explained Harriman had asserted more money was needed to do the work to elect Higgins governor and asked to have Cortelyou and Bliss help with such funds.

Roosevelt was asked to telephone Cortelyou and Bliss and ask if they could help Harriman out as requested.

He said: "There was not one word in reference to funds for the national campaign."

He quoted a letter written to Sheldon on September 21, 1908, "I have been informed that some one on your behalf has requested contributions from Archbold and Harriman. If this is true I protest earnestly of the acceptance of money from trusts and the attorney general may prosecute such violation. If already tendered it should be refunded. I am no candidate, but protest as to the solicitation of funds from persons we are prosecuting. I would rather see us defeated than win with that money. The acceptance of a dollar would hurt Taft more than it possibly help to elect him."

Roosevelt denied he ever said the corporations did not contribute in 1904. He declared Archbold and Harriman had not said they got improper consideration from the former administration, but complained because they did not.

NEWLANDS MAY RESIGN TO GIVE NEPHEW A JOB

POLITICAL PLOT IS UNCOVERED BY CARSON PAPER SHOWING FINE PLANNING

That Senator Newlands intends resigning his office if Woodrow Wilson is elected to the presidency, in order that he might accept the ambassadorship to the court of St. James, is the charge recently made by the Carson News. The News calls upon Senator Newlands to answer to certain charges, but thus far the senior senator from this state has remained silent.

It is hinted that should Newlands resign, his nephew, William Sharon of Virginia City will be appointed by the coming legislature to fill the vacancy. However, should the legislature be other than Democratic the plans attributed to Newlands give promise of miscarriage.

TONOPAH HAS FIRST SNOWFALL OF THE SEASON

GROUND IS COVERED TO DEPTH OF OVER INCH BY FALL THIS AFTERNOON

The misguided individual who originally referred to snow as "the beautiful" would confer a great favor by submitting his address to the fighting editor of the Bonanza. Snow, but not "the beautiful" kind, started falling in Tonopah shortly before the noon hour today. This fact was observed by the Tonopah residents and is only mentioned here for the benefit of our out of town subscribers who owe us back subscriptions, and in the hope that they will readily realize that B. V. D. underwear is not prescribed by any physician in the winter time. And again it is rather difficult to be about without an overcoat. Especially when it is snowing.

But to return to the story. Snow fell in Tonopah today and is still falling at the time this is written. From all appearances it will continue to fall until it stops.

One year ago the first snowfall of the season was chronicled in a few words by the Bonanza. This time we are consuming more space in conveying the fact to our delinquent subscribers. A year ago we had a nice building fitted out with a stove. This year we have a smaller building and no stove. Even if we had a stove we would have no coal. So there you are. Philanthropists with surplus stoves and coal can leave same on our front door step without fear of hurting our feelings. We have no feelings, except that we do not feel very grateful for the snow. It could have fallen in some other place besides Tonopah, where it would have been more appreciated—take the Fiji Islands for instance.

But as we were saying, the snow fell today, and is still falling. By 2 o'clock the ground was covered to the depth of one inch, and each time the editorial staff emerged from the office a forcible recollection of the fact that the ground was covered with snow, was impressed upon the editorial feet owing to the soles of our shoes not being snow proof.

We have all due respect for the snow and realize that it is necessary in some localities. But for our part we would just as soon have Tonopah omitted from the snow visited regions during the coming winter.

ENTIRE DAY IS SPENT OUTLINING FEDERAL CASE

JURORS TO TRY ALLEGED DY-NAMITERS WILL BE PRISON-ERS DURING TRIAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—Assistant United States District Attorney Miller expects to consume the whole day outlining the government's case against the alleged dynamiters to the jury. The court ordered the jurors kept together. The men will virtually be prisoners during the three months' trial. Sleeping quarters have been provided in the federal building.

Miller's opening statement consisted of 800 typewritten pages. He thinks it will take two days. It recites in detail the history of the dynamiters.

The defendants heard Miller un-

$250 REWARD OFFERED CAPTURE FRED SKINNER

WARDEN COWING OF STATE PRISON IS DESIROUS OF CAP-TURING CONVICT

Sheriff Malley is in receipt of a circular letter from Warden Cowing of the state penitentiary at Carson City, offering a reward of $250 for the apprehension of Fred Skinner, who recently escaped from the institution after serving about three years of a fifty-year sentence for the murder of Mona Bell, his paramour, in Rhyolite about four years ago.

Skinner continues to elude capture, although state and county officers have been searching for him since his escape. The Carson News has the following regarding one of the several clues unsuccessfully followed by the state police:

"A beautiful story of the escape of Skinner from this city was spoiled by the state police, who ran the story down and proved it to be impossible. It was rumored that a woman of the underworld was in this city and was known as a great friend of the convict. It was also stated that she had left the city on Sunday night and had taken three trunks, one of which was of an extraordinary size. It was rumored that the big trunk contained Skinner, who by this means was to be taken to a safe hiding place. The story was a good one and looked plausible enough until it was found that all the trunks were weighed at the depot and none weighed more than 150 pounds, so Skinner could not have been inside one of them."

AMPUTATION OF CRUSHED LEG IS FOUND NECESSARY

MINER INJURED AT SILVER BOW IS TAKEN TO MINERS' HOSPITAL FOR OPERATION

A. C. Reed, who was injured at Silver Bow several weeks ago when he was caught beneath falling machinery and received a fractured leg, was removed from the county to the Miners' hospital yesterday and this morning the injured leg was removed by amputation.

Reed was engaged in hauling machinery from Hawes canyon to Silver Bow when the accident occurred. His condition has been critical for the last week and yesterday it was deemed that amputation was necessary to save his life. The operation was performed by Drs. McLeod, Cunningham and Richards.

W. W. Charles, comptroller of the Tonopah Mining company, and the members of his family are expected to return to their home in Tonopah from Los Angeles, whither they went several weeks ago.

JACKSON HATCH AND WIFE AT SAN QUENTIN

SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 4.—Jackson Hatch and wife and Sheriff Langford arrived at 10 o'clock today. They left San Jose in an auto at daylight.

Concerned and lolling in easy chairs the arraignment was watching. The most anxious persons were the defendants' wives and mothers sitting in the court room. In each instance Miller named the men the government proposes to prove guilty. He speaks all day tomorrow.

JIM M'CAMBRIDGE LEAVES TOMORROW FOR OLD HOME

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY HIS BROTHER WITH OHIO AS HIS DESTINATION

James F. McCambridge, the pioneer mining man of southern Nevada, who has been confined in the Miners' hospital for the last month, suffering from stomach trouble, will leave in the morning for his old home at Youngstown, Ohio. J. D. McCambridge, a brother, arrived in Tonopah last week and will accompany "Jim" to the old Ohio home.

Jim McCambridge was one of the early arrivals in Tonopah and has since been prominently identified with the upbuilding of this district. He is interested in several mining companies, among the lot being the Boston Tonopah. For several years he engaged in mining at Goldfield. He has many friends in southern Nevada and the hope is freely expressed that he will soon recover his former health.

NOW OPERATING CINNABAR MINES NEAR RHYOLITE

LOS ANGELES CAPITAL IS INTERESTED IN SOUTHERN CON-FINES OF NYE COUNTY

Reports from Rhyolite state that quicksilver mining is apparently destined to assume great importance in what is known as Gold Canyon, a few miles from that town, where a company, financed by Los Angeles capital, is carrying on extensive work in preparation for the extraction and treatment of cinnabar ore, of which there are large deposits and which is reported to be of high grade, many of the assays indicating a quicksilver content of from 40 to 60 per cent.

The company operating this ground has had a spur track built to its property and has shipped in quantities of machinery and equipment for a reduction plant, as well as several cars of fire brick for its roasting furnace. Operations are to be conducted upon a broad scale and are likely to prove of benefit to the town of Rhyolite and to stimulate mining operations in the Bullfrog district, in which but little mining is being done at present, but which is still believed to hold possibilities for future production of the precious metals.

MACHINERY AT ALL ELY MINES IS BEING WAXED

LONG DRAWN OUT STRUGGLE IS BEING ANTICIPATED BY OPERATORS

ELY, Nev., Oct. 4.—President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners and A. L. Wilde, representing the steam shovelmen's union, left here this morning for Salt Lake City. Mr. Moyer stated that he intended to leave Salt Lake in a few days for Ray, Ariz., where he will call out the employees of the Ray Consolidated Copper company, after which he will proceed to Santa Rita to take the same action against the Chino Copper company.

The concentrator at McGill will use all the ore on hand today. The concentrates in stock are sufficient to keep the roasters, furnaces, and converters running for about ten days when they will have to close.

All the machinery at the mines is being waxed over, indicating a long period of idleness. No one expects trouble.
